Step 4: Choose Your Girl Scout Bronze Award Project

Now your Girl Scout Junior team can start narrowing your ideas to one. Before you decide, answer these all-important questions about each of your ideas:

- Why does this idea matter?
- Who will this idea help?
- What can we do to make a difference? Is that realistic?

Write down your final choice here:

Note: A good Take Action project does something with the community in order to meet a need. The girls take the time to learn to identify and understand the root cause of the issue they are addressing beforehand.

Step 5: Make a Plan

(Note: The project should be big enough so that each girl can complete 20 hours of service.)

As a team, answer these questions:

- 1. What is our goal for the project? (If you're tackling a big issue, narrow your focus to just one part of the problem. That will make your goal easier to achieve.)
- 2. What steps do we need to take to reach our goal?
- 3. What special talents can each girl use to help make the project a success?

- 4. What did we learn when we did our Girl Scout Junior journey that will help make this project run smoothly?
- 5. Who can we ask for help?
- 6. How can we get other people involved?
- 7. What supplies will we need?
- 8. What supplies do we already have?
- 9. Do we need to earn money for our project or can we get donations from people? If we do need money, how can we earn it or how can we change the project so that it doesn't cost anything? Can we use the money from our product sales to fund our project?
- 10. How much time do we need to finish our project? Is that realistic?

Step 6: Put Your Plan in Motion

What is the task?	How will the task be done?	When should this task be finished?	Which team member(s) will complete the task?

Step 7: Spread the Word

- a) Plan to get media attention.
- b) Girls can also tell others about their project by putting together a scrapbook, creating a short film or writing a play about what they did and learned.

Step 8: Evaluation

Sustainable Project Discussion

a) After the project is complete, talk to the girls about how their project could be sustainable (i.e. How could the solutions to their community problems be lasting?)

Global Connection Project Discussion

- b) After the project is complete, talk to the girls about how people in other places experience the same problem that their project helped resolve.
- c) Have girls individually complete their Bronze Award Report Form.

Step 9: Bronze Award Ceremony

- a) Once reporting forms are submitted, leaders may purchase Bronze Award pins from the council shop.
- b) Plan to celebrate the girls' achievements through a special Bronze Award ceremony. Have girls participate in this planning process as well.
