

VIRTUAL GIRL SCOUT LAB

Because of Her Virtual Girl Scout Lab March 24, 2020

To complete the Virtual Girl Scout Lab Activities, you must join the GSBDC - Girl Scouts Facebook Group or the GSBDC - Parents and Volunteers Facebook Group. Then, join the Virtual Lab Event in the group you joined. Complete three out of five activities.

Amelia Earhart

1. Make a paper airplane out of a sheet of paper. View instructions by clicking here. Try to fly it! Film yourself flying the airplane and post it to the Virtual Girl Scout Lab. Explore other girls designs, and comment on their airplane.
2. Look at a map of the world and think of a dream trip to at least two different places. How would you get there? What would you do once you were there? Share your dream trip ideas and plans in the Virtual Girl Scout Lab event page on Facebook.
3. Amelia helped as a nurse during World War I. Learn a simple first aid skills like bandaging a would or setting a broken bone. Make a video of you demonstrating the skills you learned and post your video in the Virtual Girl Scout Lab event page on Facebook.
4. Make an airplane out of candy! It wont fly, but it sure will be sweet! Instructions can be found by clicking here. Post a picture of your candy plane creations in the Virtual Girl Scout Lab.
5. Research the places that Amelia landed on her flight around the world. Try to learn more about one of those places: who lives there, what was the weather like, what kind of animals are there, etc. Post the information you learned in the Virtual Girl Scout Lab.

THERE IS POWER IN EVERY GIRL

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.
