Harriet Tubman

1. Create a time-line of Harriet Tubman's life using crayons, markers, colored pencils or paint. On the time-line illustrate a picture about Harriet's life. Take a picture of your illustration and post in tin the Virtual Girl Scout Lab.
2. With an adult, research different routes along the Underground Railroad. Look at a map together and trace the distances along the routes. How far did slaves travel? How long did it take them? Where did they sleep and what did they eat? Watch a short video about a house along the Underground Railroad by clicking here. How did people work together to get slaves to safety?
3. It is important for Girl Scouts to have heroes that inspire them. Harriet Tubman is only one of countless extraordinary people that risked their lives to accomplish great deeds. Think of your favorite hero, real or imaginary. What qualities does this person have. In the Virtual Girl Scout Lab, list your hero and the qualities that make that person a hero.
4. Slaves traveling through through Underground Railroad did not have a map. Often times they had to use the natural landscape to hide and as a map. Watch a short video about a route along the Underground Railroad by clicking here. After watching the video, take a picture outside of your house/apartment. Post the the picture in the Virtual Girl Scout Lab and write a short description about the picture. How would you describe the items in the picture, so they could be used as a map?
5. In 2016, the US Treasury announced that Harriet Tubman would be put on $20 bill. Draw a picture of Harriet Tubman on the $20 bill. Take a photo and post it in the Virtual Girl Scout Lab.
